THOMAS MOORE,

SINGER'S NEW FAMILY SEWING

MACHINE.

The very large sales of this popular machine as shown by official returns, far exceed that of any other machine, its sales during the last two years being greater than the Grover & Baker, Woed, Howe and others combined, and this fact or result has been owing to its real merits, hence its great and growing popularity. It is simple in construction, easily understood, all its parts gliding smoothly and noiselessly along and are not liable to get out of order; has at tachment for every kind and variety of work, and sews with equal facility the linest and coarsest material; uses straight needle, same size cotton for upper and lower stitch, and makes stitch alike on both sides of the tabric; needs no basting as a guide to sew by, and is now offered to the public as incomparably the best machine in existence. It would avail us nothing to make the above assertions if we were not ready to prove them. All weask is a trial, for observation alone can fully convey a clear impression of the many kinds of work of which our new family machine is capable. Machines for hire and for sale on liberal terms. Parties are instructed in the use of the machine. Sat-

JUDGE TANEY. —A correst orderst ckingham Register writing from FredLity, relates the following interesting lent in the life of the late Chief Justice

There is connected with Judge Taney's private life, a very interesting chapter, showing in a very powerful and beautiful manner the life of the late Chief Listing Canada and lately occupied by John C. Rodgers, containing in a very powerful and beautiful manner the taining strength and triumph of domestic affection and religious faith. He was a Catholic, but wooed and won the affections of Miss Key, (a sister to the author of "Star Spangled Banner,") and she being a Protestant, they agreed to disagree upon this one point of religious opinion, believing and acknowledging to each other that cach should attain the joys of the life come in seperate churches and different modes of worship while in the church militant, and further agreeing that the sons should be educated and 'brought up' in his faith and the daughters in her's, and at death each one might be buried among the people whose faith was like his or her own. And this was literally and faithfully carried out, he being buried in the Catholic Cemetery, and she in Mount Olivet, where her celebrated and elequent brother and his "peo ple" rest. As the Chief-justice's children were all females, the entire family, besides himself, were protestants.
